ROCK BACK FOR NEPAL Volume 1-3

11:56 NST on 25th of April, with a horrific magnitude jolts of 7.8/8.1 an earthquake shattered and suffocated the globe region of Nepal and then 2 weeks later an unthinkable second one struck the good people and all their personal home territories. The devastation killed over 9,000 and the total injured was over 23,000. It was the worst natural disaster to strike Nepal since the 1934 Nepal-Bihar earthquake. 2.8 million people were left in living in the open terrains in need of assistance and protection. At least 200,000 houses have been destroyed and another 190,000 badly damaged. The families are frightened/terrified and homeless, too afraid of aftershock's to return home. Unfortunately, it doesn't stop there. With the rainy season/monsoon warnings approaching in weeks it is 'urgently needed' to protect thousands of families by administering/contributing and supplying plastic sheeting and tarpaulin to create shelters for 'now the present'. This is something as humanitarians we need to be aware of in helping whenever and however long we can, like I said earlier it will be unreal number of years to get these people back to safe times with livable homes. The good people of Nepal needed and for unfortunate years to come will need our support and getting their good people and their homeland regions back fully on themselves again. We at FORKSTER throughout the course of the year after this terrifying tragedy has recognised a music charity that has absolutely stepped up for this such worthy cause for doing our part for world humanity.

Patetico Recordings owner Tom Lugo did not only realise this horrible situation, but acted forward in supplying future relief funds & hope for the good people of Nepal through the power of music. "Rock Back for Nepal" compilation series Volume 1-3 is a fantastic assortment of 54 top-quality rock tracks from band's/music artist's that genre range from the atmospheric/blissrock music platforms around our 'roaring & soaring' music globe. I was and continue every so often to musically 'ear orbit out' to truly every phenomenal track apart of the 3 set compilations. A fantastic overall music atmosphere with a so worthwhile cause your contributing towards when purchasing, 'class music effort' all the way...
