

Earworms 27 July 2015

A warm welcome to Ravi this week, who has boxed some Stevie Ray Vaughn for your enjoyment. Meanwhile, amongst the new music promos there's a plug for the three volume "Rock Back for Nepal" in which around 60 artists from different genres and countries have joined forces to raise funds for the Nepal relief efforts. I'm not qualified to review it but what I've heard sounds interesting, and it's for a good cause, all money raised will go towards helping the earthquake victims: <https://pateticorecordings.bandcamp.com/album/rock-back-for-nepal-vol-1>. Meanwhile, please keep those worms coming to earworm@tincanland.com. Thanks!
